

Disclaimer

Disclaimer: Kairali World of Ayurveda (hereinafter "Company") and the Company staff, owners and associates of Kairali Group, the WorldCom LLC are not doctors and do not diagnose, prescribe for, treat, or claim to prevent any disease. Our mission is to provide information, and services to encourage natural way of healing which the individual may apply according to his own free choice. Herbs and herbal formulas are classed as dietary supplements; any mentions of them and any dosages suggested are intended solely as nutritional support. No health claims of any kind are made for any product or formula mentioned herein or in any Company's literature. Any statements made about our products have not been evaluated by the FDA. If you have or may have an illness, consult your licensed health practitioner.

Please note – Kairali world of Ayurveda is the first and only holistic center in authentic Ayurveda tradition in Stamford, and also in Connecticut. The mission is to provide an integrated program that restores health and protects from imbalances. (Disease risk prevention.)

Please DO NOT take Ayurveda program to substitute your medical treatment. Ayurveda Therapy is a long term, slow acting preventive therapy that includes diet, lifestyle changes along with stress management with Ayurvedic massages, yoga & meditation practice. IT IS NOT A MEDICAL PLAN. It is the therapy that slowly builds immunity introducing the healthy habits for improvement of health and helps in preventing risk of imbalances such as chronic diseases. It is NOT AN ALTERNATIVE PLAN for medical treatment.

Please inform your physician about the Ayurveda regimen before you incorporate changes to your diet and lifestyle.

Kairali World of Ayurveda of does not intend to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease.

Kairali World of Ayurveda in Stamford is NOT a medical facility or provide emergency services.

Please call your physician, medical facility or emergency services for ALL medical complaints.